April 2022 Child and Youth Satisfaction Survey Summary Report

Seventy-seven children in the sibling program, ages nine and older and in NTF homes for 60 days or more, were eligible for the April child and youth survey. This year the survey was presented to the children online using a link to a survey program rather than through a paper copy. This allowed them to complete the survey through their phone or home computer. Survey links were provided to the children by direct care staff who were able to visit the eligible children. Although fifty-one surveys were started, only forty-one surveys were fully completed. The overall response rate (41/77) was 53%.

Participation by program was as follows:
